EDITORIAL POLICY

All statements of opinion and of supposed fact are published under the authority of the authors, including editorials and letters. They are not to be accepted as the views of the American Dental Association or its subsidiaries unless such statements have been expressly adopted by the Association. Articles are accepted with the understanding that they have not been published previously and that they are submitted solely to The Journal. Information on any products mentioned may be available from the authors. Neither the American Dental Association nor any of its subsidiaries has any financial interest in any products mentioned in editorial content, and The Journal requires all authors to disclose any financial or other interests they may have in products or services described in their articles.

ADVERTISING POLICY

All advertising appearing in ADA publications must comply with official published advertising standards of the American Dental Association. The publication of an advertisement is not to be construed as an endorsement or approval by the American Dental Association or any of its subsidiaries, councils, commissions or bureaus of the product or service being offered in the advertisement unless the advertisement specifically includes an authorized statement that such approval or endorsement has been granted. A copy of the advertising standards of the American Dental Association is available on request.
